Thinking of installing automatic hand dryers ? If you have various locations that experience a high turnover of people then automatic hand dryers could be the answer to a number of problems. We would all like to think we are incredibly clean and hygienic but often our environment has the capacity to let us down. Perhaps it is time to reconcile those paper towels and roller towels to the wheelie bin and install automatic hand dryers in their stead. As a nation we are forever looking to maximize efficiency and cut costs – the installation of automatic hand dryers can meet those needs.
